

ELISABETA GJONI

MSC

CAREER OVERVIEW

MSC Elisabeta Gjoni is a assistant lecturer at the Department of Economics, Entrepreneurship and Finance, at Barleti University.

FIELDS OF EXPERTISE

- Basic Economics and Financial Management
- Financial evaluation of the privatization process
- Financial macroeconomic policy
- Financial system, banking system, capital market, financial regulators

EMAIL

e.gjoni@umb.edu.al

BIO

Mrs. Gjoni is currently an Adviser to Governor of the Bank of Albania. She has extensive experience in the financial sector having previously served as a Member of the Supervisory Board of the Bank of Albania and Deputy Governor of the Bank of Albania, Chairperson of the Albanian Financial Supervisory Authority, Chairwoman Commissioner of the Albanian Securities Commission, and as a financial advisor to the President of Albania.

She has also previously been an employee of the Albanian-American Enterprise Fund. During her professional career, Elisabeta has participated as a full-time or visiting lecturer at different universities in Tirana. She is also the author of several professional publications. Mrs. Gjoni serves on the board of Albanian Children Foundation.

Degree in Economist for Finance, Faculty of Economics and Business Administration, University of Tirana.

Basic Economics and Financial Management, Strathclyde University, Glasgow, UK.

Vienna Institute courses:" Financial appraisal on privatisation process" organised by EBRD

Research on "Financial macroeconomics policy in Economies in transition - Albanian case", at LICOS, Catholic University of Leuven, Belgium.

Different training short term, (one to three weeks) courses on financial system, banking system, capital market, financial regulators, organized by World Bank, IOSCO, EBRD, OECD etc.